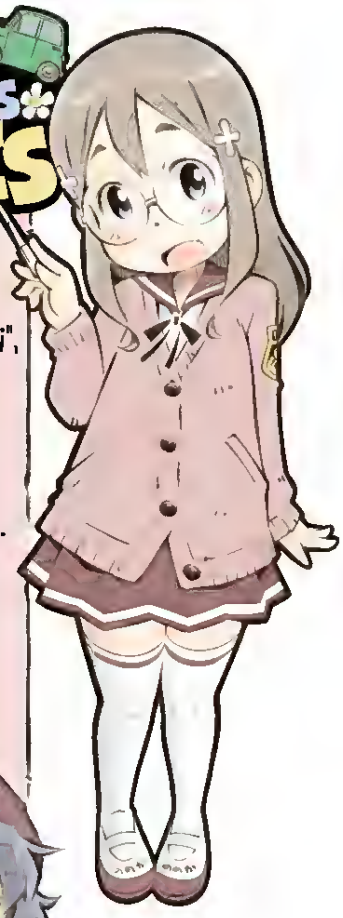
file 003 Nissan Skyline

MIMA NONOKA'S RARE CAR FILES



Yuzuha's father drives a 1978-72 model C10 Skyline.
This Skyline was commonly referred to as "Hakosuka".
The next model in the line—the C110 Skyline—was commonly called "Kenmeri", so the Hakosuka designation was meant to differentiate the C10
by referring to its more boxy (hako = box) appearance.
Amongst all the Skylines,
the specialized sports model was the GT-R with its 4 valve DOHC S20 engine.
It was entirely peerless in racing at the time.
Only 832 4 door GT-R were ever sold, making it a rare sight.
According to Yuzuha's story,
her father's Skyline is a GT model modified to look like a GT-R.
It looks kinda cool with its delinquent looks~♪
